

Baddy ran, slipped, and fell into a tub of blue dye at the riverside.

Oh, dear! I should quickly run away!

Baddy ran again and reached a dead end.

Where do I go now?

Baddy is running away from the tub, looking back over his shoulder with a worried expression. He has reached a dead end where the path is blocked by a wall.

Cheeku and Meeku saw a blue animal and stopped.

Oh, look! A blue animal!

There are no blue animals.

Two mice, Cheeku and Meeku, are standing in a field. Cheeku is pointing towards Baddy, who is standing in the distance. Meeku looks skeptical.

It must be an alien! I've seen in movies that aliens are blue. Let's run! We shouldn't confront it!

Cheeku and Meeku are shown in a close-up. Cheeku is wearing a red cap and a yellow shirt, looking concerned. Meeku is also wearing a red cap and a yellow shirt, looking thoughtful.

They ran and this time, meeku fell into the tub of blue dye.

Aah! What did I fall into?

Meeku is shown running away from Cheeku. He has tripped and fallen into the tub of blue dye. He is splashing and looking shocked.

You fell into a tub of blue dye. Now you're an alien too! Ha! Ha! Ha!

Cheeku is laughing heartily at Meeku, who is still in the tub of blue dye. Cheeku is holding a flashlight that illuminates Meeku.

Eh? That means we didn't see an alien!

Yes! let's go home. You should take a bath OR others will think you're an alien and run away!

Cheeku and Meeku are shown in a close-up. Cheeku is looking thoughtful, while Meeku is looking worried.

Baddy went home too.

A ghost has come to my house!

I'm your brother!

Baddy is shown talking to his brother, who is wearing a red shawl. Baddy is looking nervous, while his brother looks concerned.

Binny fox chased him with a broom.

A blue ghost isn't my brother! Get lost!

Binny, a fox wearing a red shawl, is chasing Baddy with a broom. Baddy is running away, looking scared.

What happened today? I didn't catch a prey. And now i'm being chased by my sister!

Baddy is shown in a close-up, looking very confused and stressed. He has a starburst effect around his head, indicating a headache or dizziness.
