

How to play Apples to Apples

March 22, 2024 / WikiHow

Welcome to Apples to Apples, a fantastic card game for gatherings with friends and family! Exercise your creativity and humor as you match words to create hilarious combinations. Follow these instructions to get ready to join the fun:

Getting Started:

Gather 4-10 friends and shuffle the red and green decks separately. Decide on the first-round judge and rotate (1) this role clockwise each round. Deal (2) seven red cards to each player, replenishing them after every round.

Playing and Winning:

Step 1: The judge flips the top green card and announces (3) the descriptive (4) term, setting the theme for the round.

Step 2: Players choose a red card to match the green term, keeping their choices secret (5).

Step 3: The judge shuffles the red cards without revealing the players to ensure (6) fairness.

Step 4: The judge decides (7) the best match, and the winning player collects the green card. The next player becomes the judge.

Step 5: Continue (8) playing rounds until (9) someone wins by collecting (10) the most green cards.

Enjoy playing Apples to Apples with your friends!
