

Nobel Peace Prize 2023

Meet Narges Mohammadi, a brave (1) advocate for women's rights in Iran. She received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2023 for her important work (2). Despite facing many challenges (3), Mohammadi remained dedicated to her cause. She joined the Defenders of Human Rights Center in 2003, helping others and speaking out against injustice. Mohammadi's fight for freedom had consequences (4). She was arrested many times and sentenced to prison and lashes. But even in prison (5), she continued to stand up (6) for what she believed in. Her story shows us the importance of courage (7) and determination in the pursuit of democracy, freedom, and equality (8).
