Subject Exciting Updates from NASA

Hello Kayim,

We have some cool news to share from NASA! Here's a quick summary:

- SpaceX Crew-7 Return: You're invited (1) to watch the SpaceX Crew-7 return (2) from space! It happens on Sunday, March 10, at 11:55 a.m. EDT. The SpaceX Dragon spacecraft (3) will leave the International Space Station on Monday, March 11, and may land off the Florida coast on Tuesday, March 12, at 5:35 a.m. Don't forget to tune in on NASA's website or app.
- SpaceX 30th Mission: Join our webinar on Friday, March 8, at 1 p.m. EST to learn (4) about the SpaceX 30th mission (5). They'll send new stuff to the International Space Station. Sign up to watch it online (6)!
- James Webb Telescope: Check out amazing (7) pictures taken by NASA's James Webb Space Telescope. They show stars forming in a galaxy called Triangulum. We can see (8) over 200 stars growing (9), which helps us understand more (10) about space!

Stay tuned for more updates from NASA!

Best regards,

Paula Rupe
